Our powder pods were designed with your ultimate safety in mind. Unlike conventional liquid pods that come with too many risks, Grab Green Pods have four layers of security in place to protect you and your loved ones. While liquid pods are colorful and squishy, ours are intentionally white and made of powder so they don't look like irresistibly colorful candy and are much more difficult to ingest. And not only do they not look like candy, but the pod's extremely bitter outer film will keep anyone from wanting to take a bite. Just like all of our products, Grab Green Pods are filled with non-toxic ingredients, making them the safest choice for your household.

Dispensers are on the rise

Dispensers are not for everyone, but we have seen many vacation rental condo buildings, hotels, motels and resorts take the leap to using dispensers versus the individual travel size amenity bottles.

If this is something you are interested in, we would love to be of service. The only up-front costs are the dispensers themselves. The usage is limited to your guests. There is a lot of research out there concerning the sustainability of plastics used, and we prefer not to attempt to interpret what the options are vs the facts. We are happy to point in the direction of some literature, but ultimately the decision is yours, what do you want for your guests. Gallon Refills and cartridges are available.

There are many design options including custom options. Please feel free to ask your representative.

AMENITIES – Bathroom

As previously mentioned, we do offer our customers custom, private labeled and co-branded amenities. Private label is not for everyone. If your volume meets the requirements, we would love to speak to you further. All our custom lines will be sustainable and biodegradable.

We offer some of the lowest minimums for manufacturing custom opportunities in the hospitality industry. We also staff an experienced and talented creative team to bring each unique collection to life.

Step One:

Do these minimums meet your needs? Assuming product is used or souvenired with each stay, our minimums meet the annual usage of most 50-room hotels.
